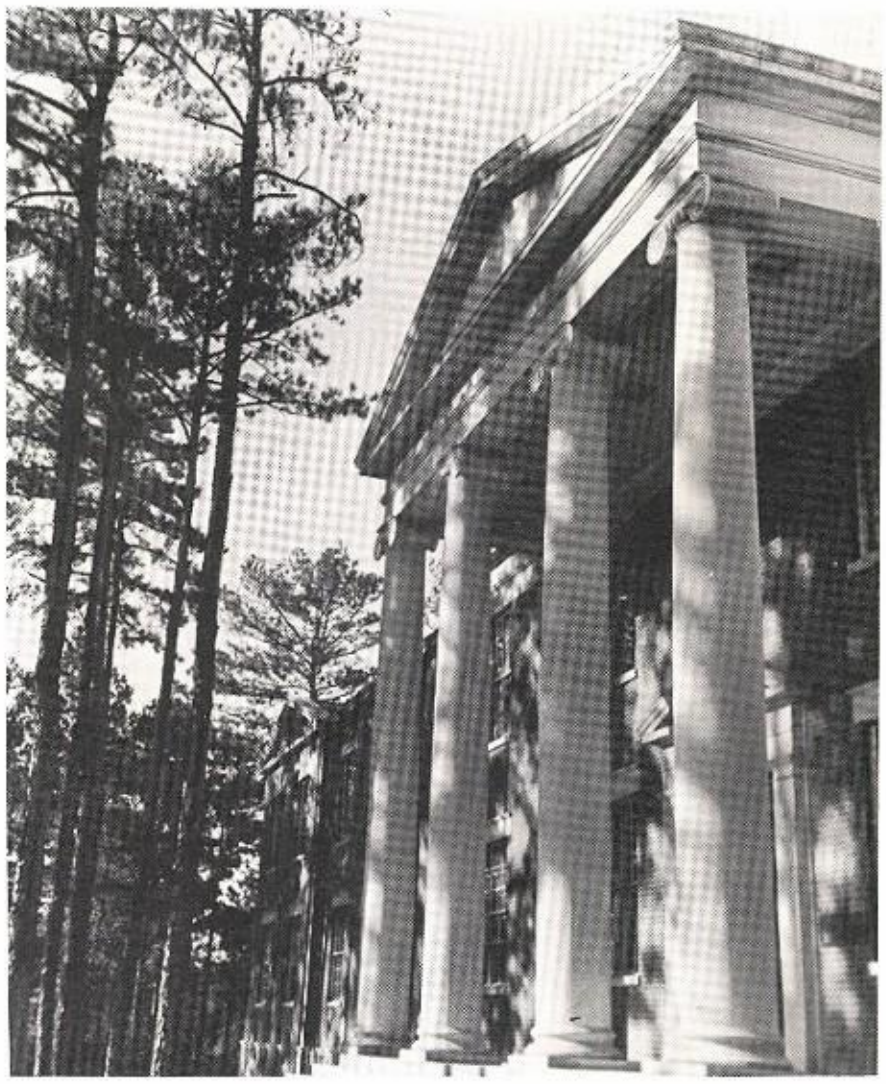
LIGHTS EMIT FRIENDLY GLOW NEAR DUSK.

Campus Moods...

Our campus is pictured on these pages in its quiet moods. After the day is over, the school relaxes and waits for the next day's energetic onslaught of students. Ghostly shadows are cast by the lights in and around the buildings. Students find solitude in quiet places to study, talk, or rest.

CROSS SECTION OF BOYS AND GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL ON THEIR WAY TO JOINT ASSEMBLY.



COLUMNS RISE IN CLASSIC SIMPLICITY.

DR. WILLIAM L. PRESSLY, PRESIDENT.

Administration . . .

Dr. William Pressly has been president of the Westminster Schools since their inception in 1951. A graduate of Princeton, Dr. Pressly received his Masters Degree from Harvard, and was awarded the degree of Doctor of Literature from Washington and Lee University. His previous position as Headmaster of the McCallie School in Chattanooga well equipped him to cope with the individual problems of students and the collective problems that arise in creating a new secondary school. But over and above these excellent qualifications and much more important to his students and faculty are his strong character and genial personality. Under Dr. Pressly's leadership we have attained a truly remarkable level of achievement in a few short years.

The principal of the Girls' School is Mrs. Walter Herbert, who joined the Westminster faculty in 1953. A graduate of Converse College, she received her Masters Degree from Emory University. Mr. Sumner Williams, a graduate of Davidson College, became Director of the Boys' School in 1955. The Director of Studies since 1953 is Mr. Donn Gaebelein, a graduate of Princeton University. These three outstanding educators work together to co-ordinate the activities of the two schools.

The chairman of the Board of Trustees is Dr. Vernon S. Broyles, Jr., pastor of the North Avenue Presbyterian Church, and the Vice-Chairman is Dr. James R. McCain, President Emeritus of Agnes Scott.

Comprised of leading citizens of Atlanta who are friends of our school, the Board meets regularly to decide on basic school policies and to insure Westminster's future growth.

JOINT APPRECIATION

Mrs. Francis Parker . . . .

In deepest appreciation, we, the class of 1958, extend our gratitude and respect to Mrs. Francis Parker. Her unfailing good humor, friendship, and fine example have been an inspiration to us all. She has been our friend and mentor on and off campus, in the Hut as well as at Daytona Beach.

We take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to Mrs. Parker. May her kindness and ready smile enrich the lives of our successors.

A third way in which the student body associates is at sports events. Football games in the fall, basketball in winter, and baseball in spring stimulate school spirit and play an important role in binding the schools together.

HOMECOMING!

Beem Rules Over Annual "Return of the Natives"

Homecoming—this event arouses more school spirit and enthusiasm than perhaps any other in the school year. And this year was no exception! Anyone who approached the campus the morning of November 15, could sense excitement in the air. The Boys' school had constructed displays around the campus and everyone was dashing madly around to see them.

School spirit began steadily mounting from the time of the rousing pep-rally until it reached a mighty climax at the game. That afternoon the Wildcats played Riverside and exhibited a great deal of skill, determination, and most important of all, sportsmanship. We were all very proud of our football team and grateful to the players for the way they played this season.

The Homecoming Dance was a fitting climax to the festivities, and everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of the Band of Stars.

Reigning over Homecoming Week-end was Queen Gina Beem and the members of her court: Andrea Avery, Lynda Bradbury, Laura Sauls, and Lynn Thompson.

Parker, Davis Reign Over Second Jazz Weekend

The big social event of the winter was our second annual Jazz Week End. Because of the success of last year's week-end, we decided to again invite Dean Hudson to play for us. The fabulous band, the great basketball game, and wonderful crowds added up to a week-end that will be long remembered.

The fun began Friday night when the Davises stole the entire show with Dana Davis crowned queen, and her brother, Kippy, winning the big dance contest. Dana, following in King Carter's footsteps, was crowned Queen, with Peter Parker as her King, these popular two having been elected by secret ballot of the entire student body.

Saturday afternoon we continued our successful week-end by winning a basketball game with Gainesville. Following the game, Dean Hudson again entertained us with a jazz concert, a popular feature in many prep schools. To end the memorable, fun-filled event, we had another dance to provide us with more jitterbugging and listening pleasure.

The high point of the winter season was the annual Mardi Gras festival. Queen Virginia Stone reigned with King Julian Baxter. By unanimous choice of the judges, the Senior float won first place as Queen Virginia portrayed the Statue of Liberty.

Mistress of ceremonies Patty Barth and heralds Anne Greenblatt and Pat Balance announced each act while suffering the constant annoyance of jesters Jane Sojourner and Gina Beem.

Second place in the float competition went to the Juniors, with Katherine Etheridge, escorted by Peter Parker, representing Helen of Troy. Displaying her motto "Let them eat cake," Penny Nunnally, as Marie Antionette, graced the Freshman float, accompanied by Peter Berry. Mary Hunter, maintaining that "Love makes the world go round," presided over the Sophomore float, escorted by Inman Allen. The Eighth Grade display was accompanied by Jennifer Hocking and Tommy Rains. Miss Hocking played Cleopatra, "As silent as a Sphynx."

After the coronation several skits were presented. The Eight Grade won first place for their production, followed by the Seniors, who placed second, and the Sophomores who took third honors.

Fall Dances

As in years past, the social Calendar of Westminster was highlighted by its dances. The Student Council sponsored "Fire and Ice" Dance, the annual Christmas Dance, and the Final Dance were among the out-standing social events of the year. The Key Club, the W-Club, and the Athletic Council also contributed to the success of several other affairs including the Big Jazz Week-end dances. The latter combined the service organizations of both boys' and Girls' High Schools to produce a very enjoyable and pleasant weekend. These dances have contributed much as any one other feature, toward strengthening the bond between the two high schools.

EIGHTH GRADE EQUALS ENERGY, EAGERNESS

Led by Madame President, Lucille Scoville, and her alert "cabinet," the Class of '62 has ably adjusted to Westminster —having survived the traditional trials of Rat Week and having shown enthusiastic interest in various school activities, including the newly instituted afternoon athletic program. In the annual Westella competition, the "Rats" defeated the Freshmen for possession of the coveted Westella Elephant. Not only did the class take part in traditional activities, but they originated some of their own, having sponsored a Halloween party for an orphanage. Surely, the Class of '62 has proved that they will be capable of great things in the years to come.

FRESHMAN LIVE UP TO THEIR NAME—

Through the able leadership of President Primm, the Class of '61 has achieved many of their goals during the first semester. By winning the most points in Sing Song, the Freshman showed both enthusiam and originalty. The Thanksgiving baskets and the Homecoming lapels demonstrated their artistic ability. Placing third in the total amount gained in the magazine sale proved them excellent saleswomen. With these fine qualities, the Class of '61 will continue to grow in wisdom, in stature, in favor with God and man.

LIVE-WIRE JUNIORS CONDUCT HIGH VOLTAGE ACTIVITIES

Enthusiam, energy, and effervescence were the three E's the Class of '59 were noted for this year. Sparked by their president Cecil Collins, their cheerleaders, and their basketball players, the Junior Class participated willingly and cheerfully in school functions, supported all the school's activities, and originated new traditions—class songs and yells, the taffy sale, and true class spirit. During the first semester they won three places in Sing Song, placed first in the magazine sale, and obtained high academic records-proving that their actions speak as loudly as their words. A class that has already made great strides looks forward to next year when they will lead the school as the Senior Class of '59.

PAST IMPERFECT . . . A CLASS HISTORY

ONCE UPON A TIME . . . in the deep, dense piney thicket —formally known as The Westminster Woods—fifty woe-begone, wet-behind-the-ears Rats were welcomed by Pied Piper Pressly and Helper Herbert, one fall day, many years ago . . . After extensive briefing on the rules of the school —including a request from headquarters to mark all personal property carefully—we set about to label each desk with our names and current romantic status, this being but one method of making the teachers' task of becoming acquainted with us lighter . . .

For we were a thoughtful class, even going so far as to try to provide a little relaxing music for our tired, tempermental teachers, although we had no better instruments than a few bobby pins and a comb here and there. However, our efforts were not appreciated by some; consequently a delegation of teachers, led by a certain feline member of the faculty, fascinated by foundation garments, chose not to return the following year . . . Growing quite excited over the prospect of the much-talked-about Mardi Gras, we worked endlessly on preparations for the big event. In fact we were all enchanted as the spotlight revealed our masterpiece of a float with its thrilling declaration that Susan was a girl! Somewhat less enchanted, however, were the judges, who awarded first prize to the Freshmen, a class with which we henceforth became "Big Buddies!" . . . After surviving the perils of Rat Week, we ceased being Lowly Rats only to become Crawling Creatures—in our first May Day production . . . As our eighth grade era was drawing to a close, the earth-shaking news came to us that we, the Lowly Rats, had won the Class Cup. Of course, we were actually not too impressed because at that time we were unaware of the existence of said cup, but since our possession of the same, caused such chagrin among our sister classes, we were quite delighted about the whole affair. In fact, we have been trying to repeat our miraculous performance ever since!

REMEMBER WHEN . . . in our formative freshman year when we were green but growing, many future habits were developing . . . Sandra started on her career as class jester . . . Liz took up the laborious task of carpentry . . . Miss Outler's miscellaneous menagerie and antique autos provoked her Latin classes to continuous giggling, a habit which was to develop through the years into lusty guffaws (from both sides) . . . Mary started piddling with oils and finger paint which led her to fame as Mary "Botticelli" Bird . . . the much disputed institution of going steady took its roots with the capture of Judy by Frank and with Fran's sudden liking for Rainey days . . . Being a very domestic bunch, we were much too delicate to enter such strenuous sports as basketball (with the exception of course of durable Dolly) . . . Contrary to the usual school spirit exhibited by Freshmen, we positively refused to enter school activities . . . But much to the vexation of our sister classes we did win the Mardi Gras skit, after having lost fairy godmother, Val in a cloud of flour . . .

WITH THE SHIFTING SANDS OF TIME . . . We shifted in many ways . . . from Freshmen to Sophomores . . . from high school boys to college boys . . . from study halls to detention halls . . . and from Atlanta to Daytona! . . . Daytona—ah, those first fabulous, fun-filled, sun-filled frolics at the Monte Carlo and the Coconut Grove* . . . That versatile hillbilly Andy Griffeth inspired our second winning Mardi Gras skit which was a hepped-up version of "A String of Pearls" . . . Mrs. Haac, who seemed to be a firm believer that Latin killed the Romans and now was killing us, lost out in the war of water guns to the ever victorious Sophomores . . . Betty came . . . Betty left . . . And then there was Candy!

AS TIME ROLLED BY . . . Our Junior year was blessed with the arrival of several sorely needed scholars for ours, the smallest class—including Pledger who was to prove the inspiration for Annie's new hair style, and Lyn Crawford who came to us on a football scholarship. Her claim to fame was fast but fleeting in our crushing 9-0 defeat of the beloved Seniors in the Junior-Senior Powder Puff Bowl. (Who said we weren't athletic?) . . . Deeply satisfied with our gridiron accomplishments, we began construction of our annual Mardi Gras float. Gwynne's house, better known as "The Stable," became the meeting place for every imaginable committee, including the "How do you Tell Your Mother You've Just Wrecked the Car in Rusty's Committee!" Gwynne looked lovely as, red with rash, she rode our Carousel into the spotlight. Patti stole the show as Eloise in the skit; however, it seems the judges had retired for a coke while we were on, and, unaware of their blunder, bestowed the honors elsewhere. As we dejectedly left the Field House, we were generously assured by the victorious Seniors that actually ours had been best (as they greedily added up their class points!) But a papermache horse in Miss Pickard's room reminded us daily of our moral victory . . . Hoping to drown our sorrows by the sunshiny shores of our second home, Daytona, we departed for the Nausea Villas and King Lear's Cottages for some quiet meditation by the sea. However, this proved to be quite "har-d'on us," especially for Lynn who was constantly being annoyed by "raunchy" characters, and Patsy who was actually kidnapped . . . But eventually we were forced to return to Atlanta, where we quickly forgot all about our season in the sun and immediately got down to serious work, in order to pass those final exams so that we might become Seniors next year. (But, somewhere along the way, Jane fell a little behind and was not with us as we entered into our splendid Senior year) . . . INTERVAL . . . Four luck Seniors—Fran, Barbara, Jeannette, and Jo—toured England and France with Miss Pickard, as Carol and Ansley went to Norway and Finland as guests of the American Field Service . . .

SENIORS AT LAST!

The Fifth Anniversary of our arrival at Westminster was celebrated in fine style as we began the year right by getting on great terms with the teachers. This was a tremendous help, because things might have been really rough if we hadn't been. We eagerly looked forward to the weekly chats with Miss Outler about our term paper progress reports, only to find that we weren't progressing at all! And all the while, poor Mrs. Gilchrist complained that nobody ever gave her any notecards . . . At Christmas time we organized a pack of reindeer who, sprouting branches from all sides, gleefully left school to entertain at the Cerebral Palsy Home, after which we all departed for Christmas Holidays . . . Returning to school, we found that Camilla had not yet received her long-overdue Tau Delta Tau pin but that she did have a football to add to our Senior Showcase of Male Jewelry, a display already contributed to by Beta Sweetheart Ansly and Phi Ep Sweetheart Lainey. Meanwhile, Colquitt led the Secret Society Staff of the annual who carefully guarded its newly-acquired name—a name won by much gnashing of teeth with the boys' staff who proved to be perfect gentlemen as they gave in graciously. Our final Mardi Gras was also our most thrilling, as Virginia was crowned Queen after our statute of Liberty float was judged most dramatic. Papa, Mama, Sophia, and Luigi Pasqualie brought us second place honors in the skit making our earnings of class points a grand total of 250 for the night. As we look back on our final year here . . . on Geena Bum as Homecoming Queen . . . our own private parking lot . . . "you know who's" drivers license . . . the Faculty-Senior basketball game . . . Virginia as "the Statue" . . . our favorite Fraulein, Barbara . . . a surprise snowfall and holiday because of the cold . . . our own May Day . . . and Ellen's leadership—we will always recall our five wonderful Westminster years. We are proud to be the first class who has progressed from "Rats to Riches" on this beautiful West Paces Ferry Road campus. Although we may have had a PAST somewhat IMPERFECT, we know that Westminster has prepared us for a FUTURE PERFECT. Here's to it!

MAY DAY . . . A TEMPO OF THE TIMES

On May 6th, our annual May Day production was presented on the lawn in front of the Girls' Building. As always, May Day is sponsored by the Physical Education Department under the supervision of Mrs. Claire Thornton and Miss Ann Yates—the culmination of a semester's work on dances, props, and scenery.

This year the theme was TEMPO OF THE TIMES, a Rhythm Resume which traced the dances of the ages from primitive rhythms to modern jazz. This idea was suggested by Camilla Serviss and Grace Moister in themes written by all seniors in Miss Outler's English classes.

The May Day Committee is made up chiefly of seniors and faculty advisors who direct the production. This year's committee is as follows:

General Chairman ..... LOUISE STATON
Advisor ..... MRS. CLAIRE THORNTON
Choreographers ..... SUSAN PEGRAM
Advisor ..... MISS ANN YATES
Costumes and Props ..... MARY BIRD, LIZ FINCHER
Advisor ..... MISS EDITH SAYRE

"Y'ALL COME TO THE HOMECOMING DANCE!" The Athletic Council extends this invitation to the entire student body each year at the end of the football season. The dance is especially in honor of the hard-fighting football team, their newly-elected queen, and all Westminster Alumni. Besides this Big Weekend, the Council provides an intramural sports program throughout the year, offering archery, tennis, volleyball, basketball, hockey, softball, and swimming for class competition. It climaxes the program with a field day and encourages whole-hearted competition between the classes by giving an Athletic Trophy to the class earning the most points in intramural tournaments. Letters and awards are also given for individual achievement. This year for the first time the Athletic Council fostered an outside project by sending regular representatives to play with the children at Hillside Cottages.

An Athletic Council Meeting: R. Maurer, H. Horsey, L. Wallace B. Burns, C. Meacham, A. Lawton, D. Cardwell, M. Elliott, B. Myers, E. Primm, K. Tanner, B. Bird, S. Myers, E. White, C. Denton, L. CHEERLEADERS

THE VIVACIOUS VARSITY

Bubbling over with enthusiasm, the Westminster cheerleaders lead the student body in yells that tell our teams we are pulling for them to win. Gifted with strong lungs and untiring energy, these girls never fail to keep spirit high and to push our teams to victory. Under the effervescent leadership of Grace Moister, they have carried high our traditions of school spirit. Their job isn't an easy one nor are their responsibilities small, but their energetic efforts are certainly appreciated by all.

The Junior Varsity not only yells "fight, team, fight!" for the Junior Varsity football and basketball teams, but also helps the Varsity cheerleaders keep cheers rolling all the time. They too represent energy, enthusiasm, and active school spirit.

JR. VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Babs Storm, Edith Fraser, Jody Collins, (Captain) Diana Deas, Dell Peek, Eden White, Linda Hall, Ginger Brumby.

EIGHTH GRADE CHEERLEADERS

Dressed in their green uniforms, this newly organized cheerleading team shows us that spirit begins early at Westminster. Weekly practices kept them in tip-top shape for cheering the eighth grade boys on to victory. They did a good job helping to promote school spirit, and we are counting on them to keep up their pep in the years to come.

JR. VARSITY BASKETBALL

These girls are of great interest to the school as they are our future Varsity team. They have set an excellent record for themselves this year, having won ten out of eleven games. The one game was lost by only one point. Much of the credit for this fine showing goes to their Coach, Miss Ann Yates, and to their captains, Lucy Carpenter and Betsy Primm.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

The basketball team of 1957-58 was composed chiefly of new, inexperienced players. Although they were a green team and not expected to reach previous records set by the Westminster girls' teams, they were able to win 14 out of 19 games and two games in the Region AA tournament. This excellent record is one that the whole school is very proud of. Coached by Loren Young and his assistant, Miss Ann Yates, this fine basketball team grew in unity and in ability throughout the season.

Sally Myers, who scored a total of 383 points during the season, was their inspiring captain and Jerry Smith, an outstanding guard, the co-captain. The managers—Ethel Williamson, Nona Sterne, and Glancy Jones—were ever ready to help and contributed greatly to the team spirit. Spurred on by the will to win and the desire to live up to previous standards of Westminster teams, these Wildcats have worked hard, accomplished much, and are looking forward eagerly to next year. Since there were no Senior class members, the whole team will play again for the "green and the white."

TUMBLING TEAM

The Westminster Jumping Jacks, better known as the Tumbling Team, have had a busy season this year under the leadership of Captain Janet Cameron. They have attended monthly workshops at Murphy, Northside, and Georgia Tech; they have entered into a meet with Northside; and they have put on an excellent performance during an assembly program.

TENNIS TEAM

With the completion of the new courts, much initiative has been shown in tennis. Having chosen a team of the most capable players, Coach Chuck Straly has planned out-of-town matches with teams in North Carolina, Florida, and Tennessee. We hope that in future years the girls' tennis team will equal the record set by the boys' team.

WE SHARE OUR ABUNDANCE . . .

The Service Council acts as a Westminster Community Chest, helping those who need help and giving us a chance to share our abundance with others. The launching of the Red Cross membership drive was the first project in the fall under the leadership of President Pat Ballance and Advisor Miss Cole. Following this successful campaign, they sponsored the combined Needlework Guild and Shoe Fund. The Knit-wit Drive in which each class knitted squares for the Red Cross and for class points was an unusually successful endeavor. The annual Thanksgiving baskets, made and filled by each class, were given to needy families. At Christmas the members gave a party at the Atlanta Child's Home and sponsored the drive for Christmas stockings filled for the Salvation Army. Next came the March of Dimes drive, the Heart Drive, and in the spring, the council will end this year's "Service" to others by carrying out a CARE project.

SENIOR BIBLE CLUB

The Senior Bible Club, which is composed of members from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades, was led by Lyn Crawford and was sponsored by Mrs. Pressly this year. Meeting every week, the club read books by C. S. Lewis and discussed various religious topics, frequently inviting speakers to add enlightenment to the discussion. The special project of the club was visiting and playing with the underprivileged children at the Sheltering Arms Day Nursery twice a month, a project which has helped the club fulfill their purpose of learning and living Christianity.

QUEST CLUB

As a Junior Bible Club, the Quest Club, which is opened to eighth and ninth graders, fulfilled the meaning of their name by discussing in their meetings the concepts of various religions and many Christian concepts—the Resurrection, Life Everlasting, and prayer. With the aid of their president, Edith Fraser, and their sponsor, Mrs. Glenn Dudley, the members sponsored a drive at Christmas to collect toys for the children at Gracewood. They also had a successful Cookie Sale, the proceeds of which went to the American Bible Society.

CIRCLE REORGANIZES INTO COMMITTEES . . .

In the north Georgia mountains there is a school for underprivileged children supported by the Georgia Women's Federation. Many years ago at Washington Seminary a circle to help this school, Tallulah Falls, was organized. When Washington Seminary and the Napsonian School combined to form the Westminster School, the circle of Tallulah Falls was "carried-over" to the new school since it is an important part of the social, charitable life of Atlanta.

The Tallulah Falls Circle is open to all sophomores, juniors, and seniors. A Junior Tallulah Falls was organized last year which offers membership to sub-freshmen and freshmen. This year the Circle was reorganized; instead of having a Governing Board, the club was divided into eight committees, which are the Pilgrimage, Membership, Ways and Means, Publicity, Finance, Secretarial, Junior Tallulah Falls, and Decoration. The chairman and co-chairman of each committee meet to see that everything is running smoothly. With this new arrangement the members of the club will have more chances to help the school. A money-making project and a trip to the school have been planned for the spring. We have previously helped light the athletic field at Tallulah and have contributed to the building of the field house.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

Religious Emphasis Week was led this year by Rev. Bevel Jones, the pastor of the Audubon Forest Methodist Church. During the week Rev. Jones discussed many of the problems that confront teenagers about religion, including how to become a Christian and how to find God. Plus his speaking to the entire school, he held conferences at both schools and answered questions, ranging from courtship to world problems. This week was so successful we plan to have another one in the spring led by students.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Dance decorations! Student directories! The Holly Ball! These are but a few of the projects undertaken by the Student Council. Composed of girls elected from each home room, this active group works toward increased understanding and cooperation between faculty and student body. Mrs. John Gilchrist, Faculty advisor, guides this council in sponsoring school functions and in encouraging participation in school activities.

An important part of the Student Council's work is discussing and solving school problems. It is also active in Westminster's social life, supporting many of the school's activities such as the Christmas stocking campaign, Bermuda Shorts Day, Tuesday assemblies, and Jazz Weekend, in cooperation with the other councils.

MEMBERS OF STUDENT COUNCIL—Ginger Brumby, Carolyn Jorgensen, Sandra St. Clair, Lynn Petters, Jody Collins, Diana Deas, Barbara Hitchcock, Susan Pegram, Marina Meade, Donna Shermer, Carol Dean Spratlin, Mary Emma Carmichael, Pat Gilham, Cheryl Johnston, Cary Falconer, Marianne Meyerson, Lucy Carpenter, Alice Hurt, Ansley Boyd, Carol Littlejohn, Mrs. Gilchrist, Sis Sterne.

HONOR COUNCIL MEMBERS—Barbara Hitchcock, Alice Hurt, Ellen Bowden, Cecil Collins, Mrs. John Gilchrist (Advisor), Carol Littlejohn.

THE HONOR COUNCIL

"On my honor I have neither given nor received help on this test." When a Westminster girl abides by this pledge, she is conforming to the ideals of the Honor Council. This organization, consisting of the President and Vice-President of Student Council, the Presidents of the Senior and Junior classes, the President of Pi Sigma Kappa and the faculty advisor Mrs. Ethel Gilchrist—strives to build character and integrity in each student. By stressing the importance of the honor system, they seek to eliminate all cheating, lying, and stealing in the school. Because of their active leadership of the entire student body, our honor system has been most successful in building spirit, integrity, and character.

STUDENT CABINET

The Student Cabinet is composed of the presidents of the five classes, the captain of the cheerleaders, and the presidents of the three major councils — Student, Athletic, and Service. This organization strives to coordinate and support the various activities in the school. Its main project this year was sponsoring in conjunction with the boys' Student Cabinet, the big Jazz Weekend, an event which turned our to be a tremendous success and promises to become a Westminster tradition.

A NEW NAME, A NEW UNITY . . .

Last fall, the 1958 annual staffs of the Girls' and Boys' Schools were confronted with a problem—the big problem of finding a new name for the annual which would unite both sections under one title. A contest was held, and after many conferences with both staffs, it was decided that Jill Hocking had presented the best title—LYNX. Not only does a "wildcat of perceptive vision" symbolize the qualities we Westminster Wildcats strive for, but it also "links" the Girls' and Boys' Schools more closely together. And living up to its new name, the LYNX staff of 1958 has succeeded in promoting a unity unsurpassed in previous years, under the guidance of Editor Colquitt Meacham and Advisor Miss Joyce Thomas.

The next problem on the agenda was finding a theme to tie our annual together. It came to us almost at once that our school motto was the perfect choice. Special thanks go to our alert photographers—Mr. Chester Elliott, Jerry Smith, Miss Thomas, and Ben Read— who illustrated pictorially our growth "IN WISDOM, IN STATURE, IN FAVOR WITH GOD, AND MAN."

MAGAZINES, MAGAZINES, MAGAZINES!

This year's Business Staff was up to their ears with magazines. Every day Mary Ann Shapiro and her faithful assistants, Jeanette Gordon and Susan Padgett, worked all seventh period sorting and alphabetizing magazine subscription slips, running to the Boys' School for checks, and writing zone numbers. Miss Outler and Miss Patton deserve special credit for their tireless efforts in handling the money and keeping the books straight.

After a rather slow launching of the campaign, the class competition became intense, with practically every girl in the school doing her share. This year we sold over $18,500 worth of magazine subscriptions, breaking an all time southern record. The Senior and the Junior classes tied for first place in the sales, each class reaching well over 100%. The top prize winner was Tommy Wilkins from the Boys' School who won a beautiful portable television and proved that the whole Boys' School was really behind the magazine campaign too. The top prize winners in the Girls' School were first, Dollie Cardwell; second, Edith Fraser; third, Barbara Burns; fourth, Caroline Haun; and fifth, Patti Martin. The entire annual staff and Senior class is grateful to everyone for raising the funds to completely finance the 1958 LYNX.

THE WESTMINSTER CHIMES

The Chimes staff under the leadership of Ansley Boyd, published seven issues of The Westminster Chimes for the enjoyment of the entire student body. Trying to put out a paper that represents a small part of Westminster is a full time job, but one in which this staff has entered with enthusiasm. Encouraged by their sponsor Miss Parker, the members have been instructed concerning both the practical application of journalism and the responsibilities of a reporter.

This year the staff took up a new responsibility. In a campaign they raised $250 which will go towards supporting a foreign exchange student. Everyone is looking forward to next year when the whole school will profit from the work of this organization.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll, an international journalistic honorary society, selects its members from the staffs of the Westminster annual and paper. To be eligible, a student must maintain a "B" average and show outstanding ability in some phase of journalism, whether it be writing, editing, or business managing. The Westminster Chimes and Lynx are proof of the capabilities of the members.

SCRIPTO CLUB

The Scripto Club is a creative writing club that was formed last year by a group of Sophomores under the leadership of Miss Thomas. This year ten new members were chosen on the basis of interest and ability, making a total of twenty Sophomores and Junior members, all of whom are interested in learning more about writing. At each meeting original works —stories, poems, and essays—are read by individual members and criticized by the whole group. This spring a weekend writing workshop is planned and a literary magazine is to be published in the near future.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

There is a great excitement at the end of each semester when the faculty announces the new additions to the National Honor Society for it is a greatly coveted honor. This organization, whose aim is to provide an incentive for high school students to fully develop their capabilities, is composed of senior girls elected by the unanimous vote of the faculty. Selected on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship, and service, the members set an example for the rest of the students to follow.

PI SIGMA KAPPA

Pi Sigma Kappa is a scholastic organization composed of senior girls who have maintained an A average for their sophomore and junior years.

At Christmas the members entertain the ladies from Eventide with a special assembly given in their honor. After receiving gifts the ladies enjoy a luncheon in the cafeteria. This year's party was planned under the leadership of president, Barbara Hitchcock, and advisor, Miss Pharr.

THE CECILIANS

Try-outs, rehearsals, performances . . . more try-outs, rehearsals, performances! But don't let the Cecilians kid you—nothing was more fun or exciting than these same try-outs, rehearsals, and performances!

During the year the backstage crew and the actresses worked together under the direction of Mrs. Wapensky to produce three unusual plays. The first was a one-act production entitled "World Without Men," which turned out to be just as crazy as the title implies. Next "Women Who Wait" was on spotlight, an even more dramatic spotlight than usual. To climax their careers as Cecilians, the girls gave a delightful three-act play entitled "Ask for me Tomorrow" which proved worthy of all the work that went into it. All these productions were made possible by the skilled direction of Mrs. Wapensky, Advisor, and the effervescent leadership of Sheila Zeidwig, President.

Under the inspiration and leadership of Mary Bird, the newly founded Art Service Club has helped the school in many invaluable ways. The club, made up of students who are not only artistically talented but are also willing to give up time to the service of the school, has made its purpose to aid the school in such activities as dances, seasonal decorations, bulletin boards, and publicity. Their efforts have added greatly to the success of our dances and to the beauty of our halls.

National officers of this club are leading mathematicians, and National Headquarters are located at the University of Oklahoma.

CURRENT EVENTS CLUB

The Current Events Club, whose aim is to encourage an awareness of the important events in today's world, meets each week under the leadership of Anne Greenblatt to discuss events of that week, so that each member may take her place in society as intelligent citizens. The club presented at assembly Professor Glenn Rainey of Georgia Tech, who stressed the importance of facing the world situation with seriousness and responsibility.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, led by president Phyllis Carrol and advisor Miss Leonard, is open to all Sophomores who have had General Science. This organization, founded for the purpose of giving the members a greater understanding and appreciation of science in this era when science is of world importance has supplemented the regular courses by showing interesting films and discussing current events concerned with science.

LOVELY DECORATIONS AT DORM PARTY!

THE BOARDERS . . . AT GLENRIDGE HALL

With a giant house-cleaning job, accompanied by girlish shreiks and chatter, Glenridge Hall was initiated as Westminster's dormitory in September, 1955. For three busy years, twenty girls have loved living in this beautiful mansion on the outskirts of Atlanta in the midst of the large, wooded Glenn Estate.

Mrs. Pearl Cook for two years has been an understanding housemother to the girls. Her favorite spot is in front of the blazing fire in the library, kept so by the dauntless wood chopping of Coach Loren Young and Coach Jack Shields who reside at the dorm with their wives. As everyone knows, when Miss Yates says she is "on duty," she is being privileged to remain with the lovely young ladies in Sandy Springs for the whole weekend. The faculty is assisted by Co-Presidents Nancy Marie Lovingood and Pat Frierson.

Most of the boarders are underclassmen eager to continue their life in the magnificent old home with the acres of meadows and woods for springtime frolics, wintertime fires, and all-time study and fun.

DEDICATION ...

Coach Charlie Brake

To Coach Charles Brake we, the graduating class, dedicate the 1958 edition of The Lynx.

Coach Brake, after being with Westminster only two years, is respected and admired by the whole student body. We owe Coach Brake the deepest gratitude for bringing our football team from a position of utter failure to a place of high esteem. On the field he instilled in us that extra drive and determination that make a winner.

Aside from the feats he has achieved on the gridiron we remember him as a good friend. His ability always to handle any situation, his ready wit, and deep sincerity will stand out in our memory. To you, Coach Brake, we express out sincere appreciation.

Varsity Stomps Faculty In Annual Contest

Success! This year's tournament-bound basketball team gave an over-confident faculty squad the first defeat in the school's history. As a part of the students' annual Christmas Fund Drive, the game(?) attracted a crowd of interested folk from the entire school.

The defeat of the Faculty by a margin of 36 to 17 gave the Varsity and the students new hope and self-respect. Refereed by "Billy Yank" Gager and Coach Drake, both of whom later became volunteer substitutes, the game blossomed in the fourth quarter into a full-scale, five-ball, thirty-five contestant farce; but the score remained.

Skinflint Seniors Sold At Slave Auction

To raise money for the Atlanta Childs Home, Westminster again held its annual slave auction. Although the Seniors were not the class who gave the smallest donation per capita, it was decided that they should be sold because they had the highest slave values. The authorities proved to be correct as Bill Darby, Hicks Lanier and Slocum Howland went for almost six dollars each. The auction was a success, grossing $870; $120 more than the preceeding year.

The 1957 Wildcat Football team was honored at the Fall Sports banquet held several weeks after the final game. Five team members received trophies for their excellent work. They were Bobby Cleveland, Ronny Rodgers, most outstanding backs; Peter Parker, and Inman Allen, most valuable linemen; Jimmy Fluker, best first year man.

Colonel Ed Danforth, former Sports Editor of the Journal, was the guest speaker. His wise cracks and limericks kept the group in stitches the entire evening.

Twenty-five team members and three managers received letters. They were Macon, Cleveland, Brumby Fraser, Tharpe, Eldridge, Fluker, Baxter, Barnett, Barrett, Lanier, Skelton, Allen, Gill, Elsas, Hammer, Rodgers, Hall, Lockerman, Parker, Gains, Gager, Howland, and Askew.

The J. V., undefeated ninth grade, and undefeated eighth grade teams were also present.

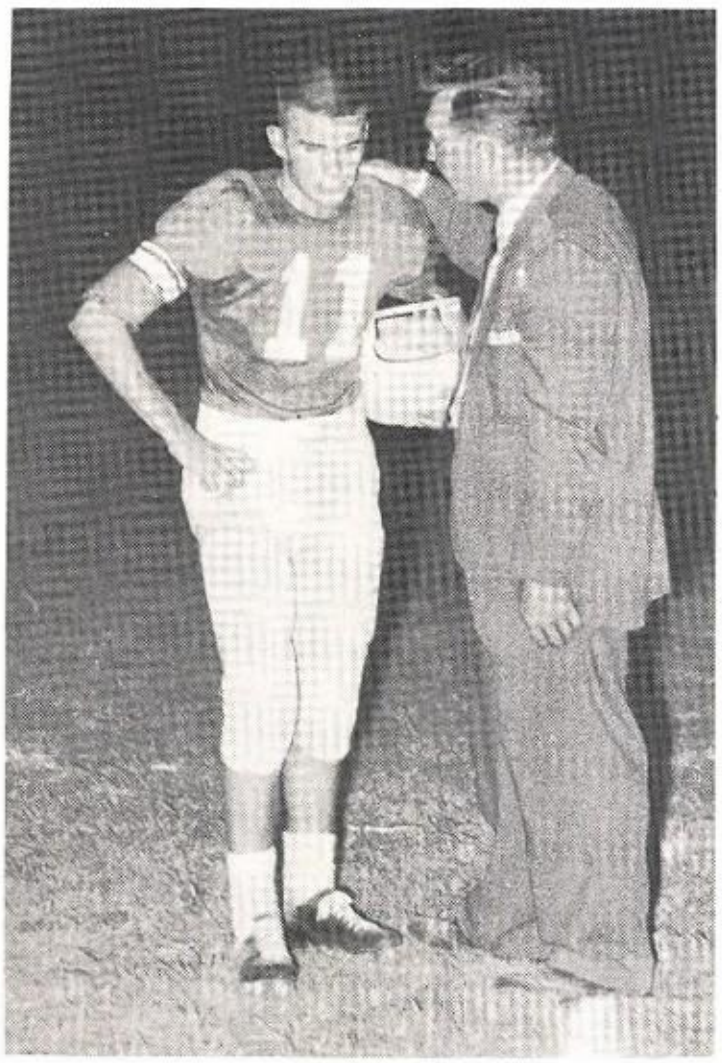
COACH BRAKE PLOTS STRATEGY WITH Q.B. CLEVELAND DURING TIME OUT IN CALHOUN VICTORY.



Cats Prowl In '57

The 1957 football season proved to be one of the most successful in Westminster history. After two weeks of rugged summer practice at Rutledge, Georgia, the "Cats" were ready to face the season ahead. Considering the many injuries and the bad weather, their 4-5-1 record is quite commendable.

Game by game, the season went this way:

September 6, Calhoun . . . The Wildcats opened the 1957 season with a thrilling 32-0 win over Calhoun. The "Cats" vicious line, led by Howland, Parker, and Rogers opened up tremendous holes for the light but speedy backs. Baxter tallied three times, Tharpe once, and Rogers once, to round out the scoring. Bobby Cleveland called a great game at quarterback, and Hicks Lanier did some excellent running.

September 14, Marist . . . A highly regarded Marist team took the field against the "Cats" at Westminster Bowl before a capacity crowd. The "Cats" were a little shaky in the first half, going out on the short end of the 13-0 score. Bobby Cleveland's second-half passing almost brought another Wildcat victory, but Marist eked out a 19-12 win. Touchdowns were scored by Baxter and Tharpe.

September 20, Druid Hills . . . The Wildcats, rebounding from the Marist defeat, played the unbeaten Red Devils to a standstill in a sea of mud. The line, led by Rains, Gager, Parker, Gill, and Macon fought the Druids savagely for 48 minutes, but the "Cat" offense just couldn't seem to score.

September 27, Avondale . . . The Wildcats battled Avondale's highly regarded Blue Devils on even terms for four quarters in the Westminster Bowl. Most of the action was centered around the rugged line play of both teams. Allen, Hammer, Askew, Gager, and Parker anchored the great "Cat" forewall; backs Cleveland, Lanier, and Tharpe ran well. Avondale's lone tally came in the first period.

October 4, Gainesville . . . The trip to Gainesville was an unsuccessful one, although it had its bright spots. The "Cat" line, led by Gill, Barnett, Brumby, Howland, and Lockerman, played good football, but Gainesville's power proved to be the deciding factor, and the "Cats" came out on the short end of a 14-0 score.

October 11, College Park . . . The big green team battled tne Rams on a muddy field and emerged on top of a 2-0 score. The lone tally came after Bill Darby dropped a punt dead on the Ram 1 yard line, and Askew and Rogers blocked a punt in the end zone. Ronnie Rogers gained 98 yards from his new fullback post as he bore the brunt of the ground attack.

October 18, Darlington . . . A fired-up Wildcat eleven handed Darlington its third loss of the season by a 19-0 score. Bobby Tharpe scored twice, once by a crowd-pleasing 50 yard run and the other on a 32 yard pass from Bobby Cleveland. Ronny Rogers scored the clinching TD on a hard-earned scamper off-tackle.

October 25, Newton County . . . The Wildcat eleven suffered its fourth loss of the season to a determined Newton County club. Jimmy Fluker picked up a Ram fumble and scooted 20 yards for the only "Cat" score, but the "Cats" were on the Ram one foot line when the first half ended. Ronny Rogers made several long runs, and Barnett, Gager, and Darby sparkled in the line. Newton County stopped many "Cat" drives to earn a 13-6 victory.

November 12, Chamblee . . . An out-manned Chamblee team was completely overpowered by a flurry of Wildcat touchdowns. Julian Baxter scored three, all of them resulting from long runs. Bobby Cleveland and Ronny Rogers tallied once each on one yard thrusts. Hicks Lanier added the other score with a brilliant pass reception.

November 15, Riverside . . . A sad homecoming was in store for Westminster as Riverside triumphed 25-6. The first half was fairly even, with Riverside leading 12-6 at the horn. A Bobby Cleveland to Tony Askew TD aerial provided Wildcat partisans with the afternoon's only thrill. The "Cats" could not get rolling in the second half, and that was the ball game.

Guards Peter Parker, Tommy Rains, and Alan Elsas did a fine job throughout the season in holding down the middle of the line, while tackles Slocum Howland, Stewart Gager, and Carter Gill protected the outside. Ends Tony Askew, Ronny Rogers, Sandy Hammer, and Steve Barnett played outstandingly, both offensively and defensively. Bill Hall made some fine snaps on punts, and Gray Brumby played well at guard. Al Barret, Gray Skelton and Frank Eldridge gave valuable assistance in the backfield.

This year's Junior Varsity football team, ably coached by Mr. Robert Sims, had one of its most successful seasons in history. The season produced many thrills, highlighted by the two wins over Savannah and Chamblee. Walter Ratchford called a good season at quarterback and Bonneau Ansley, Speed Howell, and Bob Reardon did some spectacular running from their backfield positions. Bill Walthall, Griffin Bell, Paul Pressly, and McKee Nunally were the stalwarts in the tough forewall. The team's record was two wins, two losses, and one tie.

8th Grade

The eighth grade remained consistent in '58, turning in another undefeated season. Led by the able quarter-backing of Duke Shackleford, and the flashy running of Neil Gunby, the Wildkittens rolled up a 5-0 record. Linemen Connell and Arant provided the beef and did an exceptional job in opening holes for the speedy backs. Coaches "Buck" Flowers and Jim Bunnell did a fine job in moulding a team which was outstanding throughout the season.

EIGHTH GRADE TEAM: FIRST ROW: Ralph McGill, Bobby Castles, John Lee, Gray Bethea, Joe Williams, Alan Neely, Brooks Griffin, Bruce Whitaker, Mike Rogers, George Connell. SECOND ROW: Jim Royer, Foster Parsons, Duke Schakelford, Butch Fultz, Frank Allen, Bill Schwartz, Bill Pressly, Nick Sears, Bob Bridges. 'Cat Bucketmen Post 18-7 Record

This year's basketball team proved to be the most outstanding in Westminster history. The fine 18-7 record posted by the boys accurately reflects their desire and determination. Many local sports writers described the team as "one of the hottest fires in Georgia." Of the seven losses suffered, two were to Druid Hills by one point, one was to Athens by two points, and a fourth was to North Fulton by four points. In short, nobody pushed the 'Cats around.

Coach Wright's squad was composed of twelve boys, with Hicks Lanier serving as captain for the second consecutive year. Hicks' spectacular floor play and nine point average were invaluable. His running mate at guard was Bob Nast, labeled by many coaches and authorities as the best player in the region. Bob led the team in scoring with a 19.2 average which earned him a second spot in the regional scoring race. His thirty point stint against a strong Gainesville outfit proved to be the needed margin for a well-earned 53-50 Wildcat victory.

Rebounding played a major role in the 'Cat's bucket success with seniors Bill Darby, Ronny Rogers, and Jim King handling the chores. These three boys stunned many an opponent with their rugged backboard play. Darby found his shooting eye late in the season to lead the team in its two wins over Baldwin County and College Park in the Region 2AA tournament. Rogers was especially good in the clutch as he demonstrated in the second College Park game. He completely controlled the boards and popped in ten needed points. King aided the 'Cat cause tremendously in the close games with his deadly one-handed push shot. His twelve points against East Hall in the Region tournament kept the Cats in the game.

Bobby Cleveland and Jimmy Long rounded out the first seven players. These two seniors were used throughout the season as spot players, although both started in a few games. Cleveland's two-handed set shot broke Grady's back as the 'Cats won 54-47 in an overtime. Bobby's fine floor work along with his tremendous hustle were great assets to the team. Long also performed creditably as a spot player and his jump-shooting brought the 'Cats back to life against College Park. Sandy Hammer, John Thompson, and McKee Nunally, made up the so-called bench. All played well in their appearances and should be a great help to next year's squad.

The 'Cats started the season off by losing a thriller to Druid Hills by a score of 39-38. They then rebounded to beat Spray-berry and Marist by 11 and 14 point margins. The 53-50 win over Gainesville was the high spot of the year. Bob Nast scored thirty points while Bill Darby and Ronny Rogers were controlling the backboards. Another highlight came in a sur-prisingly easy 51-40 victory over Fairburn. Fairburn came to our gym with a 16-1 record only to be blown off the court by a flurry of second-half baskets by Bob Nast and Bill Darby.

The 63-44 win over Chamblee also demonstrated the 'Cats' power.

Our tournament play featured two thrilling wins over Baldwin County and College Park and a heart-breaking loss to East Hall. Jim King hit for twelve points and Bob Nast collected thirteen as the 'Cats battled the boys from Gainesville on even terms before falling 52-48. East Hall went on to win the region and reach the semi-finals of the state.

This year's J. V. Basketball Team, under the guidance of Mr. Harrison Straley posted a 13-3 season record. High spots of the season were two victories over Northside.

Harrison Jones led the team throughout the year and was awarded the most valuable player trophy at the banquet. George McCarty, Gene Pearce, Bill Abbott, Bonneau Ansley, and David Drake rounded out the regulars.

These boys will be a strong asset to the Varsity next year, and Coach Wright can be thankful for several bright prospects.

9th Grade Basketball

The ninth grade basketball team, new this year, posted a 8-4 record chart under the leadership of Coach Patton.

Robert Blackwood provided the needed height under the boards and led the team in three winning efforts against the Marist Cadets. He was voted "Most Valuable Player" by the team at the season's end. Other stars were Reese Lanier, Tommy Buckley, Dudley Pearson, Perry McCarty, and Terry Bridges. These boys got much valuable training and will be a lot of help to varsity teams in the future.

8th Grade Basketball

The eighth grade basketball team turned in another outstanding performance, ending up with a 9-1 season record. Coaches Bunnell and Flowers guided the team through their schedule.

Paul Worley was elected Captain and received the "Most Valuable Player" award at the annual banquet. Mike Rogers was most improved, Bill Arant got best team spirit, and Kippy Kirkpatrick was the best sport. Duke Schakleford was consistently outstanding and turned in several clutch performances. Coach Wright can look for several bright prospects for future 'Cat teams.

Roundballers Post Best Season Record

Under the leadership of Coaches Williams and Brake, the Soccer team amassed the best record in the school's history, 5-3-1. The team was captained by Pete Berry who got the Most Valuable Player trophy at the end of the year. Peyton Robinson was most improved.

The team caught fire after Christmas, winning four and tying arch-rival McCallie. Goalie Bo Brown saved many games with stops in front of the goal. Scoring punch was provided by Steve Baldwin, Inman Allen, Bobby Stanley, Peyton Robinson, and Kendrick Maddox. Bill Hall, Tom Fraser, Bill Humphries, and Pete Berry stopped many drives short of the 'Cat goal. With many key regulars returning, next year's squad should better the third place Mid-South standing.

Coach David Lauderdale's 1957 wrestling team showed vast improvement over last year's squad. Frank Eldridge captained the team and Pete Parker served as Co-Captain.

Frank compiled a 6-1 record for top honors. Marvin Mitchell and Philip Macon won some important matches against some tough competition. Joe Haas continued to show improvement and will be a great help to next year's team. Wally Kennedy, Bill Flinn, Clancy Ridley and Gil Meredith made good progress and will provide the nucleus of the 1958 team. Slocum Howland, Ed Reynolds, Ed Croft, Jack Curry, Carleton Fuller, Bill Sommers, Johnny Conant, Ryland Scott and Steve Barnett performed well throughout the season.

High spot in the campaign came in the state meet held at Emory University. Gray Brumby, Joe Haas, and Wally Kennedy all reached the semi-finals in their respective divisions. With only five men graduating, next year's team should have a banner year.

The Wildcat tankmen of 1957 enjoyed another successful season under their able Coach, Yutch Stolz. This year's team proved to be the most spectacular in Westminster history, compiling a 7-0 dual meet record. Some of the accomplishments of this great team were wins over Athens, G. M. A., Marist, McCallie, Tech, Georgia, and the Clemson Freshmen.

This year's team was led by Allen Lockerman, 100-yard freestyle artist; Harrison Merrill, 100-yard butterfly and medley; and freestylers Arthur Merrill and Barry Branch. The team's backstroke performers were Al Barrett and Irving Willingham. Billy Weyman's spectacular diving brought the cats some valuable points in numerous meets. Alan Elsas did a fine job in the breaststroke. These boys were ably supported by Arthur Booth, Walter Castles, Drew Meulenberg, Johnny Howells, Bjorn Christopherson, John Mullin, Chase Hunter, and Sloan Creveling.

The winning of the State and Metropolitan Championships proved to be the high spots of the season. The 'Cats captured 95 and 114 points, respectively, to win these coveted titles. Congratulations from the faculty and student body are extended to this successful group, who have added much to Westminster's athletic fame.

With Ted Mealor and Bjorn Christopherson as co-captains, this year's cross-country team did well in dual meets during the season.

Notable rising stars were found by Coach Koshewa's keen eye in Charles Mitchell, Mike Brumby, Harrison Jones, and Jack Morlen. This active team sport should be highly commended for the interest and enthusiasm it has brought to the fall sports program.

Co-captain Ted Mealor, who also holds the State 440 yard track record, was voted the team's most valuable member.

This year the track team promises to be the best in Westminster's history. Over 50 boys turned out for the trials, and with the services of these returning lettermen; Ted Mealor, State 440 yard champ, Julian Baxter, who won the Sub-Region last year, Ronny Rogers, who did well last year, Sandy Hammer, Jack Morlen, Bob Nast, and Billy Weyman we can expect a banner season.

Baseball

The 1957 'Cat diamond squad had the best season in the history of the school. With most lettermen returning the 'Cats finally found themselves under the leadership of Coach Jim Patton.

Cleveland, Porter, Lake and King returned to their old infield positions and did an excellent job. Ansley, Lanier, Campbell and Kelly patrolled the outer gardens. Mound strength was provided by Walter Ratchford, Pat Kelley, and Stew Gager, with relief help from King and Cleveland. Fluker and Gifford handled the catching duties.

Many younger boys got much experience this year and should be an asset to future teams.

Tennis

This year's tennis team is anticipating another banner year with Coach Jack Waters at the helm. Only one Senior will be absent from last year's Mid-South champs, so the netmen will have a definite advantage experience-wise.

Mike Neely, Bill Darby, Brooks Pearson, Charles Benedict, Speed Howell, Carleton Fuller and Billy Benedict will form the nucleus of another championship team.

Largely responsible for the 'Cats' tennis success has been Jack Waters, who has worked extremely hard with this group. He will be in his sixth year as head coach, having already produced five Mid-South championship teams.

Honor Council

To refrain from lying, cheating and stealing, and to consider oneself duty-bound to report any such violations is the cornerstone of Westminster's Honor Code. This system has functioned to the benefit of the entire student body since the school's inception in 1951.

This group, which is dedicated to enhancing the integrity of the individual, has on several occasions, been called to the task of deliberating and passing judgement. With the welfare of the individual student in mind, the Honor Council helps him to realize his mistake and to correct his ways.

The council, composed of two members elected by their respective class in the upper classes and one member from the eighth and ninth grades, anticipates the day when the Honor Council will be superfluous. But until such time, it will require the cooperation of the entire student body to keep our standards of honor high.

This year's officers were: Jim Long, President; John Porter, Vice-President; and Jim Fluker, Secretary-Treasurer.

Student Council

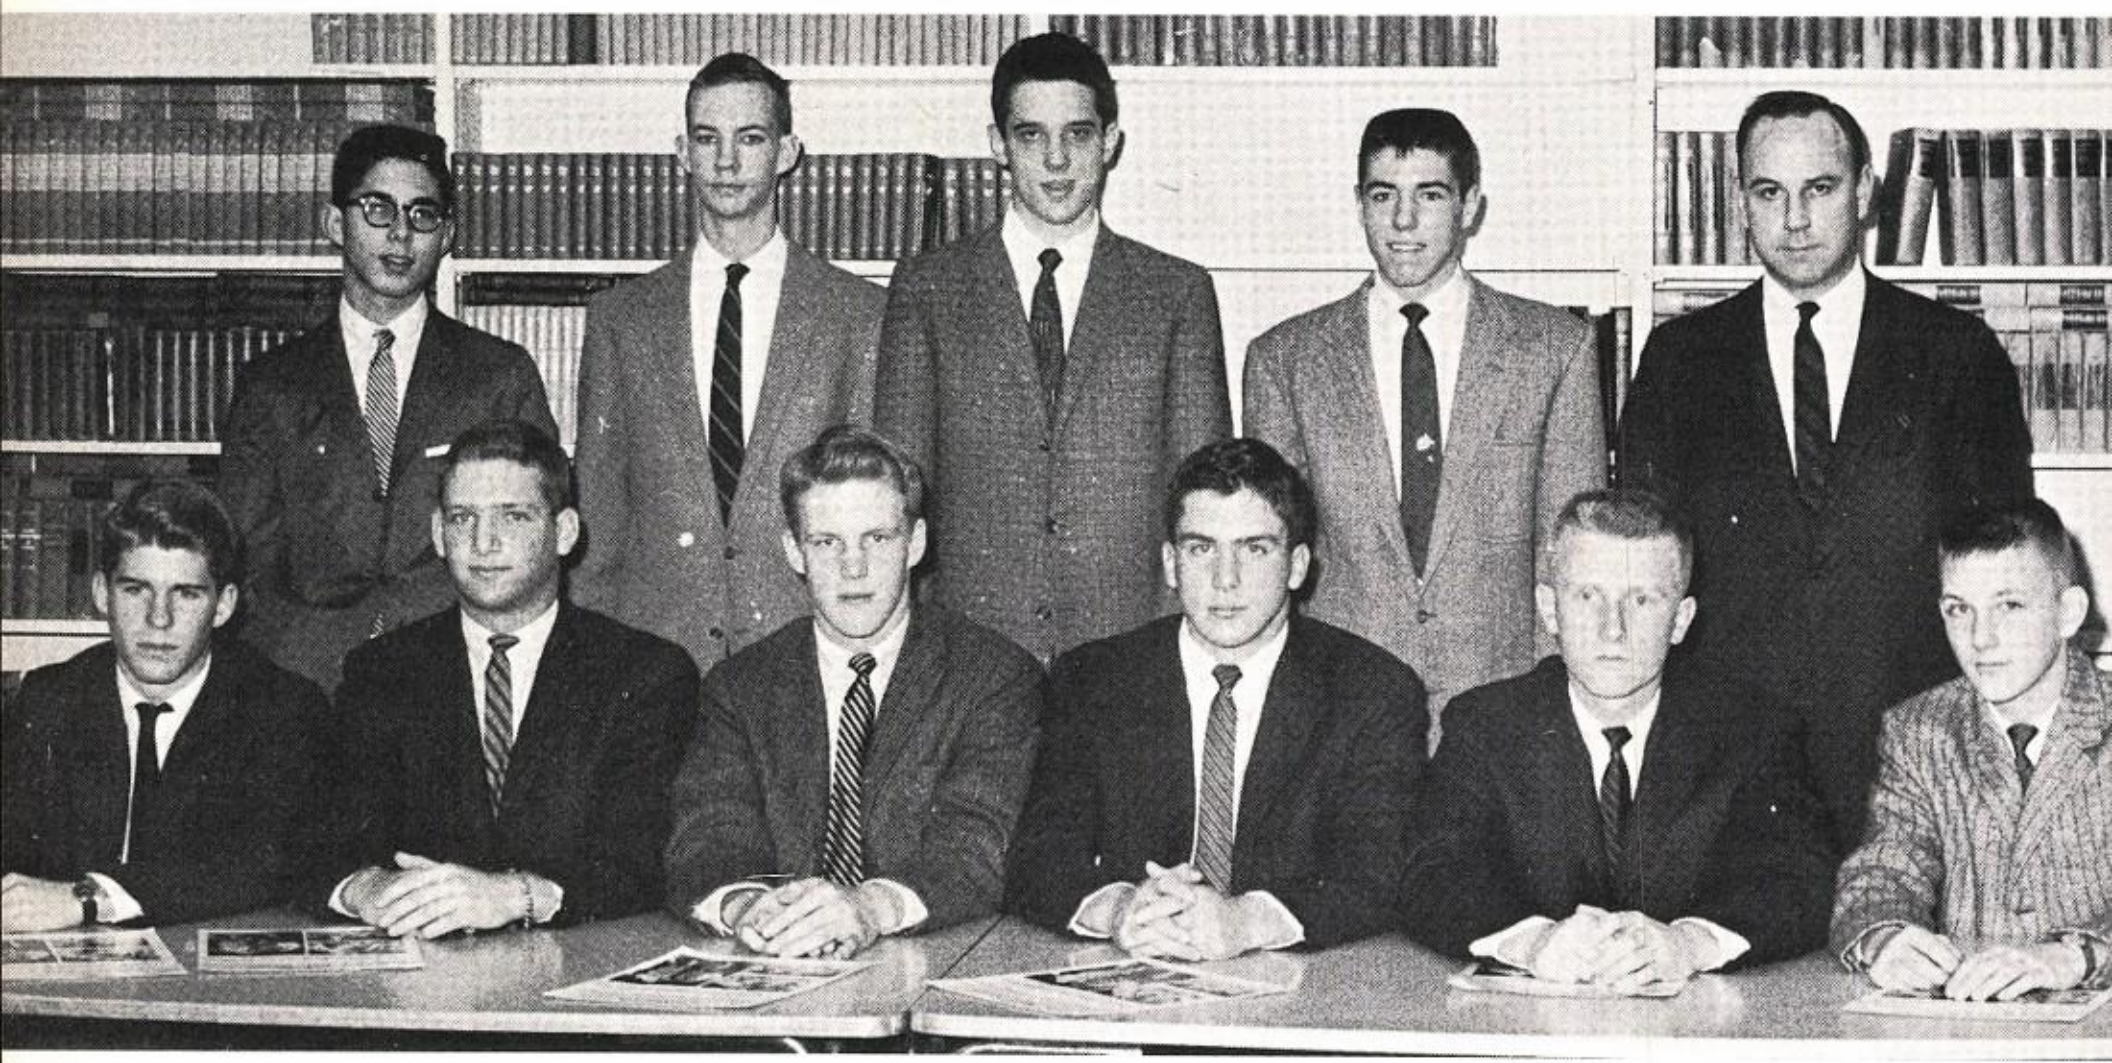
As in the years past, the Student Council has served the student body in the four fields of student government, service, citizenship, and student-faculty relations.

This year the Council has had the responsibility of sponsoring several school dances. This group, with cooperation from the Girls' School Student Council, successfully engineered a dance amid Fire and Ice. The Council's annual Christmas Dance also proved to be a big hit.

The traditional Christmas Drive for the Atlanta Child's Home netted over $870. The senior's "Scotch-pockets" forced their class to mount the slave block again. A vengeful Varsity basketball team in an overtime student decision crushed a Trig. teacher-led faculty squad. This year's Child's Home Drive should be recognized as an outstanding and worthwhile achievement of the student body.

Rat Week, with Jim King as the largest rat, was also under the watchful eye of the Student Council.

Officers for the year were: Arthur Booth, President; John Mullin, Vice-President; Julian Baxter, Secretary; and Jim King, Treasurer. Mr. Lauderdale assisted the group in the capacity of faculty advisor.



MARK SHEET STAFF: SEATED: Clem Ford, Tom Fraser, Inman Allen, Tom Rains, Walter Ratchford, Chip Siegel. STANDING: Mike Harris, Choc Roberts, Jim Stribling, John Mullin, Mr. Rudolph, advisor.

Mark Sheet Keeps Casual Motif

A project of the junior class, the Mark Sheet, campus news and gossip spreader, again proved to be a great asset to the school. Aided by ex-editors Al Barrett and Arthur Booth, the juniors turned out the first edition in the traditional "Cat Style."

Capable Tommy Rains assumed the role as editor, backed by the new associate editor, Inman Allen. "Moon" Mullin fell heir to the coveted position of business manager. The posts of feature and sports editor were held by Tom Fraser and Walter Ratchford, respectively. Choc Roberts took the "flicks" and Mr. J. P. Rudolph served as faculty representative.

Annuals Lynxed Closer

In response to a growing desire for a closer bond between the girls' and boys' high schools, the two annual staffs have combined Storied Windows and Track of the Cat into one integrated volume, The Lynx. The consolidation of the two yearbooks is the realized hope of years, and the joint section of twenty-seven pages accents the tie between the two schools.

Al Barrett, editor; Arthur Booth, associate editor; Ben Reed, photographic editor; Tommy Long, business manager; and Mr. Stephen Adams, faculty advisor; joined forces to produce the boys' share of the mutual enterprise.

Key Club

A service organization dedicated to the cause of promoting good citizenship, the Key Club deserves much praise for its performance during the past year. Under the able leadership of John Porter, the group has provided us with a calendar of events, a cleanup program for the campus, and the manning of Mrs. Parker's concession stand in the Gym — to mention only a few of its contributions.

The organization is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Atlanta and maintains close liaison with it.

This year's Key Club officers were John Porter, President; Bo Brown, Vice-President; Jim Fluker, Secretary; and Frank Eldridge, Treasurer. Messrs Bunnell and Patton served as faculty advisors.

Band

Under the direction of Mr. Gerald Hennigen, The Westminster Marching band has contributed greatly to the enhancement of the traditional Westminster esprit de corps. The band's future looks particularly promising in view of the youth of most of its members. From the nucleus we now have, we may expect a musical group of high caliber.

National Honor Society

Any junior or senior outstanding in leadership, scholarship, character, and service is eligible to be elected to this honorary society. Elections, held by the faculty twice a year, decide a certain per cent of each class to be installed in this high position of student-faculty esteem.

W-Club

The W. Club is an organization of all those who have won a varsity letter in any sport. The officers were Peter Parker, President; Bobby Cleveland, vice-president; and Jimmy Fluker, secretary-treasurer.

W-CLUB: FIRST ROW: Fuller, Spears, Fraser, Law, Allen, Benedict, Porter, Stanley, Castles, Mealor, Doss. Safety Council

Who is it that sponsors safety on the campus? Why none other than Col. Barker and his mounted Safety Council. Since the Student Safety Council's birth last year, the automotive menace to Westminster society has greatly diminished.

Auto registration, campus speed limits, non parking areas, and safety programs in assembly are among the notable achievements of this group. Bill Humphries, Gerry Hull, Clem Ford, and Tommy Long are the officiating members of this invaluable council.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll is an honorary student journalistic society for students who have demonstrated their interest by work on school publications, annual and newspaper. Business and photographic staffs of these groups are also eligible. Members must maintain a "B" average. The faculty advisor is anonymous.

STUDENT SAFETY COUNCIL: Clem Ford, Bruce Montgomery, Colonel Barker, Tommy Long, Bill Humphries.

Mu Alpha Theta

An organization of mathematically inclined students, Mu Alpha Theta, was organized this year under the leadership of Mr. Chuck Straley. Founded by Mr. T. K. Dyer last year, the new group had for a nucleus the charter members and added ten juniors and seniors who demonstrated their interest by an 85 average in math courses.

Chess Club

Last year's Chess Club membership has burgeoned into a group of over twenty enthusiasts. Under the guidance of Mr. Milton Davis, the club has attracted talent as well as numbers. Bobby Stanley served as President, Walter Ratchford as Vice-President, and Bonneau Ansley as Secretary.

CLASSES

Senior Reflections

Here we are the Senior Class of '58! It's a wonderful feeling to think back over the many fabulous times we have had as a group and as individuals. It is an awesome feeling to realize how much we've actually accomplished in five years. Right now it seems as if the years have flown by, but there have been times when we thought we would never reach this, the apex of our high school career. Now that it's here, we can look back with a real sense of pride and accomplishment, not to mention a feeling of great appreciation for the many people who have helped us along the way.

It seems just yesterday that most of us entered into that new adventure called high school, back on the old North Avenue campus. Several personalities and incidents stand out in our illustrious careers as Eighth Graders. We all remember Jungle Jim, fender smasher, Patton's Sub-Terranian Botanical Gardens, often haunted by the "pleasant" sounds of a diesel trailer truck rumbling by the window. There were also the mad Struggle-buggy races between E.W.W. and D.M.G. over to the new campus and athletics. During that winter the Eighth Grade football squad was ably coached by Mr. Gaebelein and Mr. Wright who was lucky enough to run a roadblock on a trip to McCallie. Among others present at the big move from North Avenue to the Paces Ferry site were: Sloc (F. B.) Howland; "Twinkle-Toes" "Salt and Pepper" Lanier; "Angus" Elsas; Ben Read; Arthur Booth; "Peanut" Cleveland; "Rongor" Rogers; Carter Gill; Brooksie "Bubbles" Pearson; Tony Askew; Jim "Cannibal"; Peter Parker and "Booty" Long.

As we returned the following year, we felt a real sense of advancement in rank as freshmen. This was the year everybody sneaked around the halls trying to avoid Ronnie Brown, Tillie Nowland, Tommy Morton and others of the post-graduate fame.

We also owe much to those who escaped the "Royal Road to Romance"; such personages as Wilfie Gregson, who is now tracking sputniks for Oglethorpe University; Bill "have gun will travel" Comer; Bruce Sherrill, who succeeded in business as a taffy-vendor and used golf-ball seller; also George Boyd who was once rolled down the hall stuffed upside-down in a trash can.

After a fairly routine and uneventful Freshman year, pandemonium erupted in the form of a struggle for power with the Senior class during the spring of the Sophomore year. The informal fracas was halted by the authorities, only after the Hull trophy was threatened by mass brawling in the halls. However, before the now traditional clash faded into the sunset, the gurgles of Chuck Tuller and "Baby" Bob Wheeler were forever embedded in the sands of Nancy's Creek.

It was also during the sophomore year that various members of our class began their illustrious athletic careers. Among the notables were varsity footballers Hicks Lanier, Carter Gill, Slocum Howland, Ronny Rogers, and Peter Parker. Those of eminence on the Round-ball court were Bobby Cleveland, Hicks and Ronny. In the spring of the sophomore year a rash of teen-age hot-rodders appeared on the scene as Tiger Eldridge relinquished his claim to the only driver's license in the class.

As Juniors, many of us began the year with an introduction to Coach Charlie Brake, who was to become an integral part of our last two years in high school. Under his guidance we were to learn to take the hard knocks with the moments of glory and good times. We owe much to his patience and great wit.

During this unforgettable year we put out the first issues of the scandal sheet; an excellent example of yellow-dog journalism under the guidance of Jazzbo Collins and "Mark Sheet" Editor Al "Barrell." Highlights of the rag were such columns as "Packing and Shipping" and "Modine Gunch." There was always a mad scramble to see who would write Peppy as every week became pack-your-buddy week.

Our Senior year started off with a bang for most of us in the form of a short but thrilling vacation to scenic Camp Rutledge for football camp. We were ably entertained by the "Washington Georgia Flash," "Chop-Chop-Chop" Williams, and "Beaver" Drake, who came up with some marvelous games such as 4 on 1, the gauntlet, and the everpresent sled. While we are thinking of it, Hicks Lanier and a few other 'cat notables wish to leave a warning for all future Westminster football teamers "fortunate" enough to undergo such a thrilling experience. "Avoid all Wednesday morning practice sessions (FAT CHANCE!)"

As the wilderness scouts returned, we found Westminster ready and waiting as usual to overwork the only thing we had left — brains. The ensuing gridiron season proved to be the muddiest yet, and one of the most thrilling ever seen in Minister's "natural bowl." The spirit of the entire school was tremendous as the Wildcat eleven, captained by Rogers, Cleveland and Howland, stayed high in contention for region honors through the season.

One of the definite highlights of this school year has been the success of the senior-led roundball team. Captained by Hicks Lanier, who now possesses the flashiest letter in the school, the squad came through with 10 straight victories at the end of the season and fought their way to the third round of the region tournament.

Here we must mention Gris, "Rodrigo," Long whose continued effort on the back yard basketball court brought the neighborhood trophy to his squad. Coach "Chromedome" Wright was ably assisted by Coach "quack-quack" Drake, and his star-studded basketball.

Also very much a part of the athletic scene during this year was the outstanding swimming team, captained by mermaids Branch and Lockerman, also led by Barrrret and ubiquitious Angi. They splashed to victory in the Georgia State meet and to runner-up position in the Southeastern.

During the year there suddenly appeared an outcropping of Chevy Impalas and Ford Skyliners, but to no one's surprise they were all overshadowed by the canoe-carrying "jungle-cruiser" captained by "yards" King, better known as the original "Tiger-gator."

Nevertheless we must leave the title of Hot-Rod king to bouncing Benny Read, also known as "Honest Iago," or "cost-plus-ten for a friend," Ben.

Also unforgettable during that year was the priceless spring exodus to Daytona where incidents occurred by the hatfuls. It was here that Angus first installed a peepsight on his Chevy and took up the pastime of bumping off old ladies in Crosleys. Also included were staged gag-kidnappings and frequent nightly trips to the Inlet, the racetrack, and the Neptune Drive-in.

At this point we must pause to remember that necessary evil; teachers.

Among the professors who were not able to withstand the onslaught of our mental progress were Joe Hahn, Honor graduate of the School of Andes; Jolly Cholly Lloyd, of $64,000.00 question fame, who left in quest of more receptive minds for his lectures on Marilyn Monroe and rice barrels; "Snake" Barron more commonly known as the "Strangler"; Mr. McGee, author of the famous statement, "Agree, Disagree or Get Out"; Doctor Rocky Matthews, the disappearing man.

Those who have survived are Mr. David Thomas Lauderdale, who coined the well-known phrase, "CENSORED"; Emmett Wright, who, it it rumored, pays double for a hair cut because the barber has to look for his hair. Don Gaebelein, chairman in charge of misplaced Princeton graduates, camps and vital statistics. Jim Patton, advertising representative for winning baseball teams, and Sharian Rug Company. "General" George Barker, who delivered more "C" Rations to the Battle of the Bulge than any other quartermaster in history. Czar Nicholas II—also known as Jim Bunnell, or "Needle Beak."

While mentioning teachers, we would like to give a cheer for the "Washington Georgia Flash";

Okra, peas, crab-apple trees,

Corn, wheat, all you can eat,

Sharecropper,

Sharecropper, can't be beat.

Before we leave we would like to mention the most important facet of our entire school life, love and lovers; which brings to mind one of our many mottos, "If you ain't lovin, you ain't livin." At this time we should remember such greats in this field of endeavor as Cleveland "the faithful" or "never-say-die" Bob; "Don't wait up for me" Parker; "You may laugh and scoff now" Gill, "Fatwood" Howland, also known as the Fayetteville Flash" and the author of the statement, "I didn't love her anyway." Cherry "Popsicle" Lanier, author of the famous statement, "GHE-GHE-GHE Officer, we just stopped to talk." Stew "Have shovel, will travel" Gager. Also, we must include the blissfully married—Darbo and Netia, Nobs and Aline King and Mary Lamar, "Barrell," Brooksie and "Get out of here" Emma, and then there's always "Humph . . . !"

Now, laying aside all scandal and to end with a note of seriousness, we can all honestly say that these past years have been a truly unforgettable page in in our lives. In closing we wish to express our sincerest appreciation to the many wonderful people who have made us proud to be a part of Westminster.

Seniors Select Six Superlatives

The members of the class of 1958 elected the six boys that they felt best represented the Senior Class. These boys were chosen because they best exemplified the qualities of athletic ability, scholarship, leadership, character, and personality. This choice was perhaps the more valid since this is the first class that has been together for at least five full years.

JUNIORS

This year's Junior class has not only maintained, but has actually improved upon the outstanding record it has made in previous years. President John Mullin was ably seconded by Jimmy Fluker as vice-president and Sandy Hammer as secretary-treasurer. Honor Council members were Jimmy Fluker and Tommy Rains.

As in the past, the Mark Sheet was a Junior project. Tommy Rains was editor and Inman Allen associate editor. Other posts were held by Clem Ford, Tom Fraser, Walter Ratchford, Chip Siegel and Jim Stribling.

There has been no shortage of Junior names on the honor roll. Arthur Merrill, Neal Gunby, Kendrick Mattox, Walter Ratchford, Chip Siegel, Mark Dougherty, and Bill Sewell appeared regularly on this list.

The Junior Class has been well represented this year in varsity sports by a host of very capable and valuable players. Inman Allen, Julian Baxter, Jimmy Fluker, Wit Hall, Sandy Hammer, Tommy Rains, and Bobby Tharpe were football lettermen. The soccer team boasted Inman Allen, Steve Baldwin, Tommy Fraser, Kendrick Mattox, Tommy Rains, Walter Ratchford, Bobby Stanley, Tim Trivers, Paul Scoville, and Tommy Wells. Jimmy Fluker was co-captain of the varsity basketball team.

Westminster's state champion swimming team sported some first-rate Junior class aqua-men. They were Arthur Merrill, John Mullin, and Tom Law.

The Junior Class was ably represented on the Student Council by Julian Baxter and John Mullin; and by Jimmy Fluker and Tommy Rains on the Honor Council.

Key Club members from the Junior Class were Sandy Hammer, Tommy Rains, Bob Reardon, Chip Siegel and Tom Wells.
